iUniverse, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 223 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A Gift from the Garden: Growing Wealth in all Stages of Life is a wonderful resource for anyone struggling to acquire the financial resources necessary for future educational, retirement, or elderly care costs while, also, trying to increase personal wealth. Reflecting on her own background, author Leesa R. Gern illustrates that we are often faced with financial demands that most of us are not fully prepared to meet. As consumers in an ever-changing economy, we are sometimes left with less than adequate savings to fund retirement, elder care needs, and our children's college education. Taking into account that many people fail to plan, save, and invest for these stages of life, Gern stresses the importance of the financial plan. Without one, you may be living payday to payday, unorganized and financially out of control. She provides a vast amount of information to help prepare for future expenditures and discloses the importance of wills, trusts, and estate planning for passing on your wealth. Using research and the wisdom gained from her personal experiences, Gern creates an inspiring...
