Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Abraham Lincoln: An Appreciation He would be sanguine indeed, who could hope to say any new thing of Abraham Lincoln. From the time the bullet sped which closed those weary eyes, stilled that kindly heart and gave rest to that active brain, down to this very moment, messengers have been busy bringing from everywhere incidents in the life, facts in the career and intimations of the character of this God-abounding man. It is my purpose only to recall in a brief way his relations to individual, social and national life. There may be somewhat of redundancy in the treatment, for the elements of character which made him a successful attorney made him also an astute politician, a far-seeing statesman and a forceful man.
