Excerpt: .in as if you d seen a ghost, and says, How s Uncle Ned? and I says, Bless the child, he s all right. Did you think he was dying? Well, though he did say he was better for days, I was in a fright, thinking perhaps he d drop down dead or something. But he didn t, so I s pose books ain t always right. A few days after the gown-piece had been bought a heavy fall of snow came. Gipsy went on sweeping for the greengrocer, though it was no longer a secret, and some of the charm and fun of it had in consequence passed away. Still Gipsy liked bringing his sixpence a week to Leah, and I think he thought it went a good way towards keeping him. It was Saturday night, all the doors were shut as tightly as...
