In the professional world, on the farms, among the leading business people, the Indian, educated and Christianized, is taking his place; clever Indian lawyers are looking out for the interests of their tribes; capable Indian physicians are ministering to the needs of their own people; earnest Indian preachers and teachers are spreading among the reservations the seed of the Gospel message; aggressive Indian agricultural experts are teaching the younger generation how to improve land and crops; the new Indian is helping in the forward movement activities of his country. Thirty-five thousand returned students in the Indian country to-day. A big problem and a tremendous asset for the Christian church if she will get hold of them. The young Indian to-day is a bunch of bristling possibilities, but he is handicapped on the one hand by traditions, customs, superstitions, ignorance and servility;...
