Ideals Children,
O my children! When the ship comes home. I will deck you to my pleasure With my riches and my leisure. And then and forever We will roam. Children, O my children! When the ship comes home. And no longer we are sighing O'er this weary ever-trying Gaining the sea and the breaker Stinging foam. Then, children, O my children! Though the tide sets strong. Though our eyes are growing heavy And the time seems long. We'll forget our yester-sorrow In our planning for the morrow. And cheer us in our waiting With a song! About the Publisher
