2014. PaperBack. Book Condition: New. 79 About Book: The bouquet of stories in this book is written in a very lucid manner. Majority of stories are of bygone eras and some are more contemporary. The underlining theme in these stories is to throw up characters possessing inner strength and spiritual values as the title suggests. It is readable and interesting once one picks up this book, one gets engrossed totally and wants to put it down, only when one finishes the book. The true stories are the part of wondering and amazement especially stories like the fairies dance, the nagta sadhu and few others. The fiction takes one in to the realm of the supernatural and we read about rakshas and magic. The imagination of the author takes flight especially while reading, the black magic of Bengal and monkeys and the space craft. The Indianess of the stories is emphasised and a completely new vista opens before us. About The Author:- Uma Chopra was born on 7th July, 1952 in her ancestral home in Patiala to Air Vice Marshal Raj Kumar Singh Marya and Prem Marya. The author did graduation in B.A. English (Hons) from Lady Sriram College, Delhi, in 1973. Later, she did her Master Degree in English Literature from Delhi University. Uma Chopra brought up in a family where confluence of Hindu culture and Western culture took place. She said that Western culture was brought to her by her father and Hindu culture from her mother. These two influences are a harmonious blending and are never antagonistic to each other which is reflected in her writing. The Title 'Tales of Inner Strength And Spiritual Values' written by Uma Chopra was published in the year 2014. The ISBN number 9789380222349 is assigned to the PaperBack version of this title.
