Earthen Vessel Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 214 x 138 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Pastor Kent Philpott explored Santeria, the New World version of the West African religion of the orishas, a stealth religious movement with more than 180 million adherents in Brazil alone, and discovered that it had its roots in shamanism and that contemporary neo-pagan religions like Wicca were intimately connected with both. Even more surprising, Philpott found shamans, Santerian priests, and witches appealing to what they termed charisma to support and authenticate their belief systems. What the four have in common is the trance state, ecstasy, passive state of mind, or altered state of conscious. Philpott details the theology and practices of shamanism, Santeria, and Wicca, and then regrettably demonstrates why the proponents of these religions appeal to a form of Christianity.
