The following tables show the tonnage taxes collected for the fiscal year. By the act of June 26, 1884, the expense of maintaining the Marine-Hospital Service--which cares for sick and disabled seamen of American and foreign vessels, as well as exercises on behalf of the Federal Government quarantine powers, much increased by the legislation of recent years--is borne out of the receipts of tonnage taxes. The tax is levied on the net tonnage of vessels coming from foreign ports, and is required for five successive entries. For twelve months, dating from the first payment of the tax, entries of a vessel after the fifth are exempt from tonnage tax. The provisions of the eleventh and twelfth sections...
